Dear Mr. Simpson:

Mr. Dulles has asked me to reply to your letter of 2 December announcing the 1958 sessions of the Executive Program in Business Administration.

In the career development of the Agency's senior executives, management training, such as you have outlined, is considered an important part. We are very pleased to have the information on forthcoming sessions, and your Program will be taken into account by the offices concerned with this aspect of career development.

We have no candidates to propose at this time, but if further review should result in any applications, I will forward them to you.

Sincerely,

MBIRD
